Nutrition Derby to Be Feature of Alameda Exhibit at Sacramento.

Wanted—One baby.
Wanted—One calf.
They're going to hold the great nutrition derby—and they're going to see which comes out the best, the animal or the human being, in a race of life under the best possible circumstances. The race between the baby and the calf will be the big feature of the Alameda county exhibit of the state fair at Sacramento. If the plans of Oakland dairymen succeed.

They're to have a baby and a calf, both of the same age—and feed them both on Alameda county milk. They'll measure the gain in weight in both baby and calf every day—and make allowance for the "naturally great size of the calf." They plan to see which grows the fastest, a young Alameda county bull or a husky Alameda county youngster.

Both baby and calf must be born in Alameda county—where the milk that's going to furnish the weight comes from.

Preparations were completed today for the big Alameda county exhibition. Paul Goldsmith, secretary of the Alameda county exposition commission, E. D. Parsons, director-general of the exhibit, and W. D. Nichols, county processor of fruits, prepared and shipped the exhibit. Several cars were needed to haul the many supplies. A feature of the exhibit will be the fresh fruit display from this county.

MRS. ANGELO TESIO.
(Miss Louise F. Parodi)

At St. Joseph's church in Alameda last evening, Miss Louise Flora Parodi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Parodi, became the bride of Angelo Tesio of Oakland, at a pretty ceremony attended by members of the two families and a few intimate friends. Miss Louise Parodi was maid of honor, and her sister's only attendant. Joseph Bruzzone acted as best man.

After the ceremony there was an informal reception for the relatives at the Parodi residence. The young couple have gone to Los Angeles on their wedding tour and will be absent two weeks. On their return they will live in Oakland.

SACRED COLLEGE
ELECTS PONTIFF

Archbishop of Bologna, Cardinal Della Chiesa, Receives Primacy.

Secretary of the nunciature in Spain from 1883 to 1887, in which year he was appointed secretary to the late Cardinal Rampolla, later secretary of state in 1901 and in 1907 he was elected to the post of adviser to the holy office. In 1907 he was appointed papal nuncio of Madrid, in succession to Monsignor Rinaldini, but this appointment was canceled three days later. This incident had occurred just before he was made archbishop of Bologna.

COMBATS MODERNISM.
When Monsignor Della Chiesa was given this post it was declared in Rome that it was mainly with the object of combating modern religious ideas. Bologna being the headquarters of the National Democratic League, whose members advocated what is known as "modernism" in religion.

In January, 1904, while still at Bologna, the present Pope issued a pastoral letter, strongly condemning the league.

It has been 174 years since the time of the last Pope Benedict. On his election to the papacy in 1740, Cardinal Prospero Lambertini assumed that title. It is an interesting fact that the present Pope was archbishop of Bologna, while Pope Benedict XIV was born in Bologna.

TRADITIONAL ELECTION.
The choice fell on a cardinal of Italian birth, as was expected from tradition and also from the disturbed conditions in Europe.

It was at the age of 24 that the new Pope was ordained in the priesthood. He soon attracted the attention of Cardinal Rampolla, later secretary of state for Pope Leo XIII. When Cardinal Rampolla was made nuncio to Madrid he took Monsignor Della Chiesa with him as secretary. On Cardinal Rampolla's return to Rome to become secretary of state for the Vatican, Monsignor Della Chiesa entered the secretariat of state as one of the "minutemen," or minor officials, until 1901, when he was appointed substitute of the secretariat and also secretary of the episcopate.

As secretary to the secretary of state, Cardinal Della Chiesa was brought into notable prominence throughout the Catholic hierarchy, but his position was not at that time of cardinal rank.

On the accession of Pope Pius X, Monsignor Della Chiesa continued in the secretariat until December 26, 1907, when the Pope gave him a noted promotion to the position of archbishop of the important see of Bologna. For seven years he administered the see of Bologna with rare success, until in May last Pope Pius X named him among thirteen members of the hierarchy to receive the red hat. Archbishop Began of Quebec was among the other cardinals named at that time, the others being prelates of Spain, France, Austria, Germany and Italy.

CANONICAL TITLES.
The full title of the new Pope, in addition to Benedict XV, will be Pope, Bishop of Rome and successor of St. Peter, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church, Patriarch of the West, Primate of Italy, Metropolitan of the Roman Province, Sovereign of the Temporal Dominion of the Holy Roman Church.

Baron Erp, the Belgian minister to the Holy See, went personally to the Vatican yesterday and requested that he be allowed to deliver a telegram concerning the situation in Belgium to Cardinal Mercier, who is in the conclave.

He was received by Prince Chigi, the marshal of the conclave, who granted his request, and the minister placed the dispatches on a turnstile from which the cardinals took them inside the conclave hall. Neither the cardinal nor the minister saw each other.

COUNCIL FIXES
CITY TAX RATE

Council has been able, by the utmost economy, to fix the tax rate at $1.37 on each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation. This rate is the same as that of 1913.

The council in arriving at its final figure on the tax levy this year, has been compelled to take into account several mandatory increases in department estimates which are called for under provisions of the city charter. In the Police Department, the salary scale, as fixed by the charter, calls for more than for policemen under three of service provisions. The same condition obtains in the Fire Department. Therefore, there is a larger amount of money required in the budget to meet these charter demands. The council has also been compelled under the city charter to levy a special tax of 1/2 cent on the assessed value of assessed valuation for the School Department. The Board of Education having made such a demand, under the provisions of Section 115 of the charter.

REACHES HIGH MARK.
The city has now reached the high-water mark as to municipal bond payments. The sale of municipal improvement bonds, including those specially voted for the completion of the auditorium and the building of a new Crocker school (the old one having been burned), forces an increase this fiscal year of 5c in the tax levy for bond interest and redemption purposes.

"Among other important items which will be carried in the tax levy this year and account for some increases over the last fiscal year, are those for new Crocker Hall maintenance, harbor development and the cost of two municipal elections, a primary and general, next spring.

"It will be hardly necessary for me to say that the tax levy as fixed this year is based upon a program of the closest economy. The estimates of every department of the city were made on the most possible basis, consistent with the actual necessities of the city. The rapid growth of Oakland has called for steadily increasing demands upon the city government in every branch of its activities. To meet those demands and to keep the necessarily increasing cost of municipal operations down to the least possible figure is the constant problem.

"This city is in a transition period. Its development has been remarkable and the people have kept pace in public spirit with this record growth. I feel that we should be proud of our progress and that we should let nothing stand in the way of the city's steady and forward movement which has put the city in the strong place that it occupies among the municipalities of our country."

TREASURER'S ANALYSIS.
City Treasurer Edwin Meese analyzed the figures as follows:
"The rate in the old city district will be $1.38 on the $100 assessed valuation. In the annexes of 1891 and 1897 the rate will be $1.37. In the annex of 1908 it will be $1.75.

"The amount to be raised, exclusive of bond interest and redemption, is $2,060,554. Of this amount $501,345 will be raised from sources other than taxation, leaving $2,105,219 to be raised by the tax levy.

"The tax levy will be based on an assessed valuation of $140,023,400, against that of last year, amounting to $136,271,300, a difference of $3,752,100.

"The commissioners had great difficulty in bringing down the tax rate, as there were a number of items in which their hand was forced. For instance, there was an increase in the amount to be raised for bond interest and redemption over the total of last year, amounting to $125,000, which meant an increase of about 9 cents.

"Another increase necessitated by conditions is that for maintenance and betterments of the harbor. We have exhausted the bond money available for harbor purposes, but the work must be carried on just the same, whereas the revenue for this year is somewhat problematical. There is an increase of $66,573 in the harbor appropriation over that of last year, bringing about an increase of about 4 1/2 cents in the tax levy. Other items of increase over the allowances of last year are as follows:

"School department, $25,000, or 2 1/2 cents on the tax rate.
"Two municipal elections in the spring, $24,500, or 1 1/2 cents on the tax rate.
"Maintenance of city hall, $40,000, or 3 cents on the tax rate.
"Entertainment fund, $7000, or half a cent.
"Street lighting, $10,000, or two-thirds of a cent.
"Civil Service Board (efficiency bureau), $5000, or one-third of a cent.

"Heavy cuts were made in all departmental estimates. As an instance of this, there is a cut of $10,000 in the street department estimate, while the health department estimate was cut almost 50 per cent. There were severe cuts in the police and fire estimates.

"It was possible to allow only $31,515 for permanent benefits in the street department, the largest part of which will be used for paving in front of city property. The only other item for betterments is an estimate of $50,000 included in the harbor increase of $66,573."

SENATOR ASKS COURT TO HALT RECALL ELECTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Edwin E. Grant, state senator, and author of the recall amendment bill, filed a petition with the Superior Court today for a restraining order to prevent the registrar and the election commissioners from holding a recall election against him. Recently the Supreme Court held that the registrar was the sole judge of the validity of the recall petition. Grant claims, however, that many of the signatures to the document are forgeries and that there are not sufficient genuine names to justify the calling of the election.

GIRL SLAYER IN COURT.

DENIES KNOWING ABOUT PROVISIONS

Numano Announces That He Has Received No Advice About Fleet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Consul General Numano of Japan announced this morning that he had received no advice of the possibility of a Japanese fleet taking on provisions here. He had received no orders and was much surprised at the story of the possible coaling at this port of four battleships and two torpedo boat destroyers.

"I wish to protest, however with all the force I possess," declared the consul, against the fact that Japanese students in Germany have been taken prisoners. The Chicago since the declaration of war by Japan, narrowly escaped being overhauled by Students have always been regarded as neutrals and should have at least been given an opportunity to leave the country. I think the American people should know the facts."

After an absence of several days, during which she coaled and provisioned in a friendly British Columbia port, the Japanese armored cruiser Izumo showed up in the San Francisco offing yesterday. The Japanese warship left Esquimaux on August 31st and steamed south at a leisurely pace for the purpose of protecting Japanese, British and French shipping in these waters.

While the British cruisers keep the steamer lane out of British Columbia and Puget Sound protected, the Izumo will cruise to the north and south of the Golden Gate to protect the steamers of the Japanese and British lines.

It is understood that this arrangement was made at a conference between Captain Moriama and the British and French commanders. The Izumo, it is said, applied for protection for its steamer, the Chiyu Maru, which is scheduled to leave here September 12th for the Orient. The Chiyu, since the declaration of war by Japan, narrowly escaped being overhauled by the German cruiser Nurnberg on her voyage from Honolulu to the coast. The appearance of the Izumo, off port led to the belief in shipping circles yesterday that the Japanese expect that the Nurnberg, which got away from Honolulu yesterday after coaling, will try to rejoin the Leipzig on the lower coast. This, say shipping men, is the only sensible thing the Germans could do, isolated as they now are from Apia and Tientsin.

The shipping world thinks that if the Nurnberg and Leipzig can join forces they will keep well to the southward and prey upon the commerce of the enemy, coaling from prizes and cruising about until forced into a conflict.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the notorious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Vine Festival On Allegory Scores

QUEEN LILY PAULSON.

ST. HELENA, Sept. 3.—With the crowning of Queen Lily Paulson at 2 o'clock this afternoon St. Helena joyously plunged into the four carnival days of the Vintage festival. Immediately following the initial ceremony, the first performance of the Vintage Allegory, an original play in blank verse, was given with great success.

The features of Saturday at the festival will include a meeting of the Napa county farmers for a morning discussion of timely topics, and an afternoon conference of the executive committee of the California Grape Protective Association. During the afternoon a second performance of the allegory will be given, and at 9 o'clock that evening the queen's grand ball will start. Miss Lily Paulson is queen.

On Sunday the garden will be the scene of two open-air concerts.

On Monday, Labor day, an industrial and floral parade of floats and other features will pass through the St. Helena streets. In the afternoon prizes are to be awarded, and in the evening, after a final performance of the allegory, a street dance and confetti battle will wind up the vintage festivities.

Two thousand vivid carnival caps will be given to the crowd of confetti throwers during the evening and throughout Labor day. Every visitor to the exhibit tents will carry away a miniature basket of grapes fresh from St. Helena vines.

Exhibits include novel and interesting displays from the Home Industry League of California, from the State farm at Davis and from the leading wine farms and farmers of Napa county.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Charles E. Chambers, 624 W. Washington avenue, attempted suicide by cutting his throat yesterday afternoon. He was found by his mother, Mrs. E. Chambers, in his bedroom, and removed to the Fabiola Hospital, where he was cared for by Dr. Adams. It is thought he may have a chance of recovery. His health is said to have caused his act.

MANAGER WANTED FOR AUDITORIUM

Council Hears Petition and Commissioner Devises Special Plan.

Charles F. Gorman, representing the Progress and Prosperity Committee, appeared before the city council today to ask that a manager be appointed for the municipal auditorium, as the committee has had numerous requests for dates in the new building, and believes that this matter should be given business attention. Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson said that he has the matter under consideration and will present to the council in a few days a plan.

Gorman stated that the Progress and Prosperity committee is ready to co-operate in the plans for the big dedicatory ceremonies in May.

Two petitions that the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway be permitted to continue running the Key Route trains in Twelfth street were presented by occupants of the Bacon Block and by the Twelfth street business men.

The council overruled the protest of a minority frontage of property owners in East Fourteenth street against paving the thoroughfare from High street to Fifteenth avenue.

Eight Persons Drown in Manila Rainstorm

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Seven Filipinos and one American were drowned in a flood which swept Manila after a rainfall of more than a week, according to a message today from Governor General Harrison. During the 48 hours ending at midnight, Tuesday, 16.4 inches of rain fell.

COLON AND ANCON NOW UNDER U. S. CONTROL

PANAMA, Sept. 3.—An important treaty, by the terms of which the United States gains control of the waters of the harbors of Colon and Ancon, together with certain other valuable rights, was signed here yesterday by William Jennings Price, the American Minister, and Ernesto T. Lefevre, Panamanian Secretary of Foreign Relations. The new convention has been under negotiation for the last four years. Early last year the negotiations were broken off by Panama because it then seemed impossible to bring the two governments into accord.

The instrument replaces what has been known as the Davis agreement of June 15, 1904, in which the boundaries of the canal zone were tentatively fixed, with the understanding that a future formal treaty would fix them permanently. It also amends the Panama canal treaty of November 18, 1900, under which the Canal Zone was acquired from Panama.

ALLEGED FRAUD AND SUE REAL ESTATE SYNDICATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—The Lutheran Colonization company of Nebraska brought suit in the federal court today against the Sunset Syndicate, Smith Crowder, Stuart S. Hawley and George T. Hawley of Oakland, to recover $346,447.51, charging broad misrepresentation and imposition. The story of the action goes back to March, 1911, when, it is claimed, the company was organized in Nebraska to bring out Lutherans to settle on small farms in Tehama county. The concern purchased 3800 acres from the Sunset Syndicate and alleges that certain water rights, including the Elk Antelope creek and the Little Antelope creek were specifically included in the deal. The plaintiffs declare that the syndicate represented that the creeks belonged to them and would bridge the land, and that they were going to the charges, that the creek dried up in July and moreover the water rights pertaining to them were owned by other parties.

DISCOVERS SUICIDE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Frank Copp of 60 Cumberland street, who was reported missing to the police last night, was found a suicide in Franklin square at daybreak. William Stern of 2714 Seventeenth street discovered Copp lying in the shrubbery in the park. He had a large revolver in his hand and there was a bullet wound in his temple. He was 37 years old, and the reason for his act is unknown.

CHILD KILLED BY AUTO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Running across the street with his arms outstretched to greet his mother, Mrs. Katherine Pettie, an employee of the Mayor's office, little Alexander Pettie, 5 years old, was run over and killed by an automobile belonging to Dr. S. J. Hunkin of 1153 Bush street, shortly after noon today.

WORK PROGRESSING.

FORTYFIVE, Sept. 3.—Work is progressing rapidly in the improvement of East Fourteenth street and Fruitvale avenue. Curbing and gutters have already been laid on East Fourteenth street from Thirty-first avenue to Thirty-third avenue on the south side and this improvement will be continued right on to High street. Asphalt macadam is now being laid on the west side of Fruitvale avenue, which will complete the work on the avenue from East Fourteenth street to the Southern Pacific depot.

FIRST AID BILL WILL GO ON NOVEMBER BALLOT

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 3.—Judge O. L. Mitchell of the Thurston County Superior Court yesterday afternoon ruled that Initiative measure number nine, the so-called first aid bill, had twelve more signatures than enough to qualify it to be placed on the November ballot.

That 13,420 had been wrongfully counted by Howell. Judge Mitchell sustained this contention to the extent of 239 signatures. Miss Lacy Case, whose complaint was filed, claimed that 1195 signatures were wrongfully rejected by Secretary Howell. Judge Mitchell sustained this contention to the extent of 287 signatures. This is the last of the cases appealed from rulings of the secretary of state and a petition in this case is the only one held to have enough valid signatures.

SCHILLING AUTO IN HEAD-ON CRASH

Oakland Importer and Wife Return After Accident Near Redwood City.

Following an auto crash in which their machine was partly wrecked in a head-on collision with an automobile belonging to Mrs. Sarah Wentworth, near Redwood City, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schilling, of Oakland, returned today little the worse for their perilous experience. Schilling, the noted importer and owner of the beautiful Schilling estate on Lake Merritt, with his wife, was enjoying an automobile trip over the Peninsula, when the accident took place. Both machines were wrecked, but none of the occupants thrown out. Schilling and his wife sustained cuts and bruises but no serious damage.

The accident occurred at a turn in the Woodside road near the Schilling country home. Schilling and his wife were in the Schilling car, and Mrs. Wentworth and Mrs. H. C. Finkler, prominent Redwood City clubwomen, in the other. The Schillings had turned their machine to avoid a passing buggy, when the women in the other car turned in the same direction.

Brakes were hurriedly applied to both machines, but too late to avoid the collision. The impact crushed in the fronts of both cars. Schilling and Mrs. Wentworth both clung to their wheels, however, and neither were thrown. Mrs. Wentworth escaped with minor bruises and Mrs. Finkler was unhurt.

STATE CANNOT STOP DRINKING IN SCHOOLS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—The State of California has no authority to prevent people from drinking intoxicants in a public school house, according to a decision rendered yesterday by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Edward Hyatt.

The decision was given in answer to a query from a teacher in Central California, who declared that frequent dances were given in the school house at her community, and that liquor always was served. The school trustees, she said, frequently participated in the dancing and drinking festivities, and on many occasions furnished the liquor.

Hyatt said the matter of allowing liquor in a public school house is entirely in the jurisdiction of the school trustees, there being no state law bearing on the subject.

ATLANTIC FLEET COMMAND CHANGED

The Transfer From Badger to Fletcher Will Take Place Middle of September.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Transfer of command of the Atlantic battleship fleet from Rear Admiral Badger to Rear Admiral Fletcher will take place at Hampton Roads about the middle of September. Admiral Badger will come from Vera Cruz on his flagship, the Wyoming, and Admiral Fletcher will sail back to Mexico as soon as his flag is hoisted on the big sea fighter. That has been decided upon by the Navy Department, it was announced today, the previous plan to have this transfer occur off the Mexican port having been abandoned.

The special service squadron, under Admiral Winslow, created for special duty in Mexican waters at the time of the American occupation of Vera Cruz, has been dissolved. The ships of the squadron, however, will remain on the Mexican station under Admiral Fletcher's command and Admiral Winslow will return to his duties at the naval war college, Newport, R. I.

QUAIL COSTS $30.

SAN RAFAEL, Sept. 3.—One quail on toast—$30. This is not taken from the menu card of an exclusive restaurant, as the bare statement might indicate. Rather, it is from the disbursement side of the ledger of Louis R. Carrigan, a local youth who often works a whole month for the sum named. Monday night Carrigan fired into a bevy of quail on Sixth street, bagging one bird, on which he feasted an hour later. Yesterday he was arrested on information of witnesses to the shooting, and later Judge W. F. Magee fined him $50 for shooting quail out of season. Carrigan paid the fine.

HOLD UP CHINESE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Lee Po, a Chinese cook employed in the home of Miss Maud A. Rassak, 2020 Broadway, was held up as he was about to enter a side door early this morning. Two men who had concealed themselves in the passage ordered hands up. Instead of complying the Chinese turned and ran. Robert R. Sutter of Benicia was robbed and robbed of $9 by three men this morning at Pacific and Battery streets.

Reasons Why

the next time you order "corn flakes" you should specify

Post Toasties

They are perfect flakes—thin as paper—each flake the "sweet meat" of the choicest white corn grown in the Mississippi Valley.

This food comes to you fresh, in sanitary packages, sealed tight, and with an Inside Container to keep contents right.

Post Toasties have a dainty, corn flavor—unusual to common corn flakes—this due to skilful cooking and toasting, which imprisons the oven-fresh goodness and saves it for your breakfast or lunch—

Toasties are good hot or cold; served with cream and sugar—also fresh fruit in season. To get a special richness of flavor in this distinctively American dish, warm in open oven before serving. Heat unseals this dainty flavour for your appetite. A superb food—always appetizing!

No advance in price of Post Toasties

CITY OUGHT TO BUY SKY-LINE BOULEVARD.

This is no extravagance nor exaggeration of facts. It is a correct statement of actualities. In common with those who are well acquainted with conditions, THE TRIBUNE believes Oakland should purchase the so-called "Skyline Boulevard," away up in the hills, yet within the city limits.

It is the connecting link between two roads that will make an endless drive from city hall to city hall, a circle of magnificence, thereby completing access to a chain of parks covering all that part of the east bay cities from Berkeley clear around to Indian Gulch.

With the exception of a short piece of the boulevard, which is about half graded already and being in "easy ground" the cost of completing it would be negligible—this long drive alluded to is available. One starts by way of Thirteenth avenue through Indian Gulch, Trestle Glen and Sather Park, beauty spots, by the way, thence to Dimond Canyon and on up over the Snake road, a scenic wonder, to a point where he can look at the marvels of Redwood Canyon far below, and then takes this Skyline Boulevard. The approach is by an easy grade all the way, available by either horse-drawn vehicle or motor. The boulevard itself is practically water level, as it threads around the curves and gorges through the beautiful pines to a point where it will connect with the Tunnel Boulevard leading down into Berkeley.

Space forbids extended description, but sufficient to say that the sights that may be observed from any point along the drive from the crossing of the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern to the apex are so magnificent there is no use striving to paint them in a pen picture. They would drive an easterner wild. From San Pablo bay on the north to San Jose on the south all the country is unfolded in one grand panorama. San Francisco, the Golden Gate, Alcatraz, Yerba Buena, Berkeley, Alameda and last, but by no means least, Oakland, all lie at one's feet, living pictures in a border of green, while between these sights and the center there are marvelous vistas of hill and glen that are so magnificent in their rare beauty as to provoke the highest admiration, even from the most stoical.

Next year there will be thousands of visitors here. Oakland should own that boulevard. With it Tamalpais would suffer by comparison. Tamalpais has "nothing on" this view. It could be advertised and made the greatest attractions in the bay region.

The cost is small. Ten thousand dollars will buy it and a little more money will put it in complete shape. There need be no bond issue nor added expense. Trim a little in less important matters; effect a saving here and there and the money will never be missed.

To let that property remain in private hands, especially during next year, would be the greatest mistake Oakland has made. It should belong to the city and the city should lose no time in acquiring it and making it a benefit through the advertising it will bring.

Norman E. Mack, New York's famous Democrat, writing from Europe, says he rode from Aix-le-Bains to Boulogne on a hard-boiled egg. Which demonstrates that even eggs have their enduring powers.

ADMINISTRATION FIRM IN STAND ON SHIPPING.

France and England have filed protests against the United States purchasing ships from Germany for a merchant marine as proposed in a bill pending in Congress. But it looks as if the administration intends disregarding these protests, for Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, in a statement made before the House Committee on Merchant Marine, urges immediate action, declaring the plan has been given the consideration to which it is entitled and is convinced that it is within its rights.

Secretary McAdoo assured the committee that there is no more punctilious man in the country on the subject of neutrality than the President, and that in the purchase of ships great care would be taken not to violate any neutrality laws; also, that the committee might rest assured that no junk would be bought and that vessels purchased would be up to date.

The Secretary urged that quibbling over details cease because economy cannot be measured by the necessities of the country, which is undoubtedly a fact. Still, there should be due regard shown American interests, and in this connection it is noted that the conflict between shipowners and shippers is on. The former are objecting to ships bought engaging in coastwise trade and are arguing that they should be confined to commerce across the seas, while the latter want them in the coastwise service because they believe competition will result in the lowering of rates.

This is a detail for argument, not quibbling, and should be threshed out as speedily as possible, however, because the way to get a merchant marine is to get it, and the sooner the better.

COTTON AND RICE IN CALIFORNIA.

The Department of Commerce has just issued a bulletin on cotton production in the United States in which particular reference is made to the industry in this state. This bulletin says that the Imperial Valley is well suited to the cultivation of cotton, because the soil is rich, the climate warm and the season longer than in the cotton growing states. The fact that the land is lower than the Colorado river and easily susceptible to irrigation is commented upon. As to the quality of the product it is very kindly mentioned, being described as having length, strength and uniformity, highly desirable characteristics.

But it is noted there are two drawbacks, the high cost of labor for picking and the suitability of land for other crops.

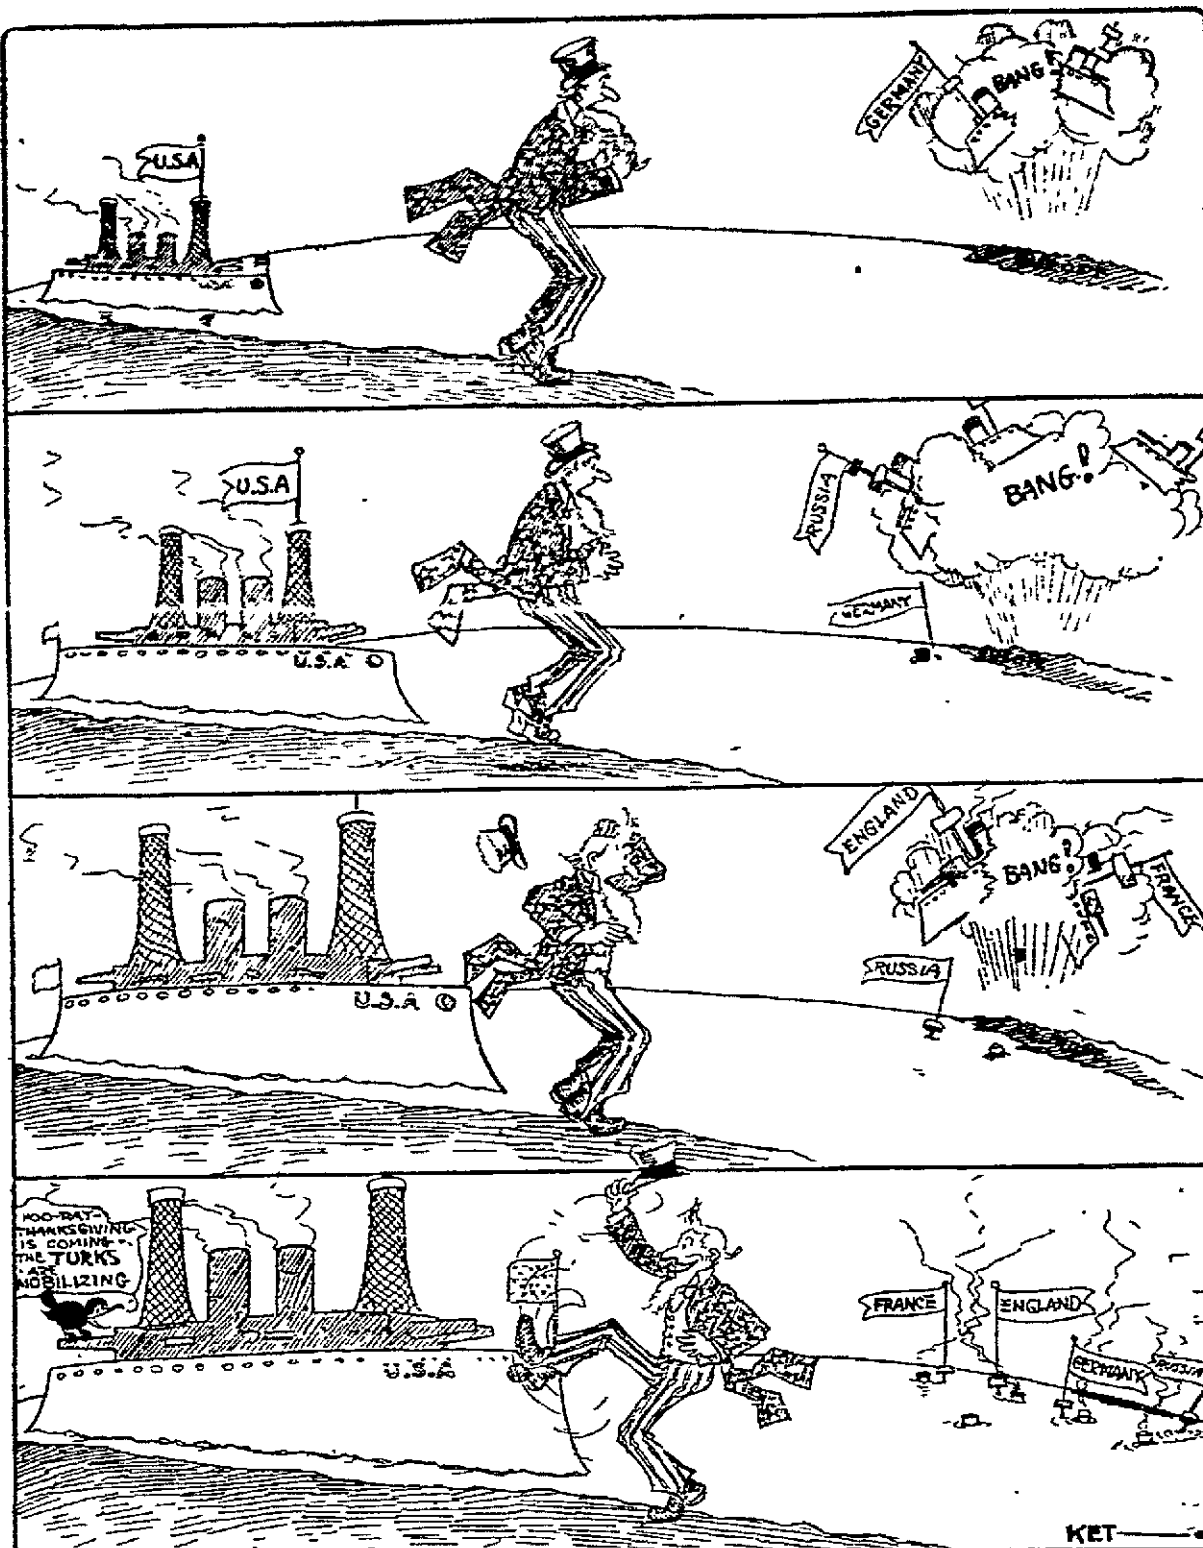

Despite these handicaps, production appears to be increasing. There were 5986 bales produced in 1910, 9790 in 1911, 8215 in 1912 and 22,338 in 1913. For the year 1914 the production, based on area planted, is estimated at from 50,000 to 100,000 bales. The statistics quoted include some cotton grown in Lower California, where conditions of climate and soil are practically the same, but where the cost of labor is less, owing to the availability of Chinese pickers.

While no predictions are made as to the future, the tone of the report indicates that great possibilities in the cotton growing line exist and that in coming years this may be one of the staple articles of commerce produced in quantity.

In connection with the cotton industry attention may well be directed to another industry, that of growing rice, farther north. Gridley, in Butte county, is celebrating the third anniversary of rice growing by a celebration, which is the first of its kind ever held north of Mason & Dixon's line. Three years ago there were less than fifty acres in Butte county devoted to rice. Now there are 15,000 acres and the value of the product is estimated at $1,000,000. Next year the acreage will be greater; in short, it is declared the amount of land will be doubled. Yuba, Glenn, Colusa and Sutter counties are planting large areas and in the San Joaquin valley much land is being devoted to the culture of the grain.

Unlike cotton, rice is grown on lands hitherto of little value, and soils that yielded nothing in the earlier days are being made productive. There is another factor to be considered, and that is the superior qualities of the product. California rice is better than the rice of the Southern States of Louisiana, Texas and the Carolinas, and is said to command a better price. There is little question that in a few more years the state will be celebrated for its rice all over the world.

IT'S AN ILL WIND—

—BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST

There appears to be no limit to the possibilities in California. Everything necessary to the comfort and luxury of mankind appears to thrive within her borders. The cereals thrive, all sorts of vegetables grow here as nowhere else, while the fame of the fruits is world wide. It requires no great stretch of imagination to foresee a glorious prospect once this state is peopled as it should be and will be, when under laws admitting human opportunity to the utmost this commonwealth will lead all others in the sisterhood.

NEUTRALITY MARRED BY MARTIAL MUSIC.

The proclamation of Mayor Rolph of San Francisco, in which he urged bandmasters and others to refrain from playing the national airs of the countries at war in Europe, lest offense might be given, finds justification in a story from Nelsonville, N. Y.

Paul La Marche, a son of sunny France, owned a phonograph. When he learned the French troops had invaded Alsace he purchased a record of the "Marseillaise" hymn and set the machine going. For hours he listened to the inspiring strains and gloated.

Across the fence lived Mrs. Lena Hoezel. Her heart was filled with the stirring melody of "Die Wacht Am Rhein," and the continued playing of the martial music of France grated on her nerves. Her Teutonic soul was harassed by this "Formez vous bataillons" business. She protested but in vain. La Marche would not desist, but cranked his machine for another session, and all that afternoon his phonograph called the citizens to arms.

Mrs. Hoezel bided her time. When the shades of evening fell Monsieur La Marche went down town to celebrate the recovery of the beloved province along the Rhine. He left the phonograph unprotected on the front porch—"stoop" they call it down East. Frau Hoezel made a flank attack on the machine with an axe and freedom shrieked as the device and its soul-stirring record were hewed into what are generally designated as "smithereens." At last reports a blue-coated officer was on duty keeping the peace.

The moral seems to be: If you must have a phonograph and must have music, play "Star-Spangled Banner."

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The engagement of Miss Bessie Bowman of this city and George Lowell is announced.

The wedding of Miss Emily Latham and F. Martinoni Jr. will take place at the bride's residence in Alameda.

There is a lot of fruit in Oakland at present. It is cheap, too. It is also the pick of the market. Owing in large part to the strike, this is not a good year for the fruit raisers and in consequence they are disposing of their crops at almost any price they can obtain. Watermelons are bringing an average of 10 cents per melon; peaches are bringing 50 cents per box; fine Bartlett pears, 25 to 40 cents per box; green corn, 15 cents per dozen; string beans, 3 and 5 cents per pound; sweet peas same, summer squash, 5 cents per pound; potatoes, 1 cent per pound.

The railroad pariahs near the transfer slips are receiving a great deal of attention from the officials of the Southern Pacific. This has been rendered necessary by the horde of tramps which rendezvous in various parts of that extensive territory. A force of nine men is mounted guard day and night. Thursday night one of the invaders was carried off the ground with a bullet in his leg, which he received from Deputy Wallace. Last night another tramp took possession of a pile of poles in the yard and had a regular banquet, including beer and chicken. Shortly after midnight they tumbled into one of the open box cars and fell into a drunken sleep. Wallace and another deputy then quietly closed the doors on either side and locked the car doors in.

This morning the car with its living freight and a number of other box cars was pulled out on the line to Livermore and beyond, and it is difficult to tell where that feast of beer and chicken will land the jolly banquets.

THOUGHTS

Liberty consists less in giving profusely than in giving judiciously.—La Bruyere.

You cannot give an instance of any man who is permitted to lay out his own time, contriving not to have tedious hours.—Johnson.

I blame equally those who take on themselves to praise man, those who take on themselves to blame him, and those who merely amuse themselves. I can approve those only who seek with tears.—Pascal.

Better, by far, a victory won.

Than a plan not yet put through; Better an ounce of "I have done,"

Than a pound of "I'm going to do."

WHO PAYS THE PRICE?

Who pays the price
When nations go to war?
The banker loaning money?
The merchant raising prices?
And ever greedily for gain?
No; these grow fat on death.
Is it the monarch who sits
Far from the reach of guns?
Is it the king, the queen,
The crafty general,
The levying parliament?
No; it is none of these.
The sweetheart pays the price
Whose arms will never hold
The man she loved again.
The mother pays the price
From whose pained body was torn
The man who falls in war;
The widow pays the price.
The sister pays the price.
The women pay the price!

Prominent Lawyer Is Quietly Wedded

Henry G. Middaugh, prominent lawyer and chairman, who makes his home at the Hotel Oakland, was quietly married yesterday in San Francisco to Miss Charlotte Yule. None of his friends were taken into his confidence, and the news of the unexpected wedding will come as a great surprise to the groom's social and business associates, who had not suspected his engagement.

The couple are spending a honeymoon at Del Monte, and on their return will occupy apartments at the Hotel Oakland.

Middaugh was formerly a well-known attorney of Bismarck, N. D., but came to California several years ago. He has offices in the First National Bank building of San Francisco. His bride is a San Francisco girl, who is popular with a wide circle of friends.

DOUGHNUTS IN HER MATRIL TRAGEDY

Wife of Dr. T. G. Dodds Also Charges Mother-in-Law in Suit.

Alleging that interference on the part of her mother-in-law had resulted in her practically being forced out of her husband's home, Mrs. Florence Dodds today commenced in the superior court a suit for $500 per month separate maintenance against Dr. Thomas G. Dodds, a wealthy physician of 2044 Twenty-fourth avenue. Mrs. Dodds recites that she does not desire a divorce, but inasmuch as her husband is receiving $1500 per month maintenance, asked for in proportion to the circumstances.

Among the various forms of cruelty complained of by Mrs. Dodds is alleged that at one time, while they were stopping at Lake Tahoe, her husband humiliated her by refusing to speak to her in the presence of others. Finally the domestic life in the East Oakland household came to a crisis when her husband sided with his mother in matters pertaining to her welfare. The end of the matter was that she was obliged to leave the house, which she did on August 12. Mrs. Dodds has retained Attorney Stanley Moore to conduct the legal proceedings in the maintenance matter.

J. Albrecht, Pacific Coast agent for a large eastern supply house, residing at 2144 Fiftieth avenue, has been made defendant in a suit for divorce brought by Etta Albrecht, who charges in one particular that he threw a bag of doughnuts at her head. The suit was filed by Attorney George McDonough, representing Mrs. Albrecht.

Oakland Club luncheon will not be held until September 8.

Two resolutions, one in behalf of the committee of 100 organized to secure the success of the million dollar bond issue, and the other in favor of joining the Travelers' Aid society of Alameda county, were unanimously adopted at the opening meeting of the club members put in an appearance.

Following the reports on last year's activities, the club agreed to accept the house and luncheon matters and section work. Mrs. Edwin Owen, the president, commented on current events, particularly the war, and the club members approved Benjamin Franklin's sentiment that "good war, and no peace is a bad peace."

After an explanation of the million dollar bond issue and the obligation it might involve, it was agreed to support the idea of shouldering heavier taxes might be, Oakland owed support to San Francisco in return for the benefits which must accrue to this city through the exposition. The opinion was also expressed that since San Francisco could make no loan to annex Oakland, Oakland could afford to show some extensive generosity, particularly as the bond issue was so important.

Mrs. F. Crane, chairman of the Travelers' Aid society of Alameda county, when called upon for her address, said that she was very glad to see the club members, and that she was very glad to see the club members, and that she was very glad to see the club members.

The Alameda county society is a branch of the state organization, and its object is to provide for the needs of the traveling public. The club members were very interested in the work of the society, and they were very glad to see the club members.

The executive committee members are: E. W. Baker, Dr. George C. Pardee, Miss Grace Fisher, Mrs. Hester Rowell, Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. Thomas Hogan, Frederick C. Jacoby and Mrs. E. W. Baker. This committee, together with representatives of other societies, were guests of Mrs. F. Crane at the luncheon given yesterday at the Palace Hotel for the state society.

An interesting guest at the Eboli Tuesday night was Mrs. Bartlett, president of the Los Angeles club, one of the very early members of Oakland Eboli and the organizer of many successful culture clubs in the southern part of the state. Mrs. Bartlett congratulated the club on its philanthropic work.

The Hill and Valley club of Hayward intends opening the season with a luncheon for its members at Odd Fellows hall on Monday. Mrs. E. W. Baker, president of the club, will preside and during the afternoon an elaborate program will be presented. The special feature of the afternoon will be a discourse on "Trip to Mt. Lassen" by Professor Johnson of the Hayward high school which will follow musical numbers and parliamentary drill.

Over 50 members attended a fancy dress reception held by the California White Club at the Regency hotel last evening. It had been the plan of the book review section, which arranged the evening, to have a water party as a book or the mental development of the members, and the club members were very interested in the work of the society, and they were very glad to see the club members.

Members of the book review section, Mrs. Ruth Farley, chairman, Mrs. F. E. Osgood, Mrs. M. H. Howell, Miss Zoe Ackerman and Miss Margaret Moore, presented a very interesting and profitable meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock when Mrs. Dore Cooldge will speak on the redemptive value of the mental development of subnormal children accomplished under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Hickey, an expert in education along psychological lines.

LARGE PARTY IN THE TAHOE TOUR

Auburn Engages a Brass Band
for Open-Air Dance
Feature.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Oh! What a time we are going to have on the big Tahoe tour that starts from Oakland on Saturday morning. All of 100 people will start rolling in about 25 cars over the California end of the Lincoln highway for the prettiest spot in the world—Lake Tahoe.

How are things working out? Say, every little arrangement is coming along fine. It is going to be a grand little party. Already enough owners have signed blanks to leave the tour being not only a social success but a larger event than any previous attempt of its kind. The east can hold its Golden Tour and every one about it as well as it wants to, but for a downright successful event, just keep your eye on the Tahoe tour.

The Hotel Stockton has arranged to serve a dandy luncheon at individual tables at noon on Saturday at a flat rate for each car of $1.00. These prices include the cost of the food and the service of the waiters. The hotel has completed arrangements to look after the party between 10 and 11 o'clock, and the party will be free to leave at any time after 11 o'clock.

Early Sunday morning we will leave Auburn from the Freeman hotel at 7 a. m. At about 1 o'clock, all members of the tour will arrive at Lake Mary near the summit where the tour will be provided by the Tahoe Tavern. With this luncheon hot tea and coffee will be served. The tour will leave the Tahoe Tavern at 2 o'clock and will reach the summit at 3 o'clock. The tour will be free to leave at any time after 3 o'clock.

The tour will leave the foot of Broadway at 8 o'clock sharp on Saturday morning and all taking part are requested to be on time. No fee is charged to any one to join the party. The idea is to get together and take advantage of the hotel and have a good time at less cost than we could go in smaller caravans, and for the comfort of the motor and the convenience of the tour the same hotel features will be attractive.

While the motor is being in the private owners' division are donated by the Fry Manufacturing company of Oakland maker of the famous Hercules non-skid tires; Charles H. Brown company, 10 gallon case of Harris; the National Auto Supply company, 10 gallon case of automobile oil and from Westcott Nichols 10 gallon case of motor oil. These prizes will be drawn for according to numbers by the contestants.

F. C. Blanchard, assistant manager of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company of Akron, is the latest of the coast. Blanchard reached San Francisco yesterday and will remain here for three days making his headquarters with W. H. Bell, manager of the local branch of the big tire company. Mr. Bell has always been in the direction of the "Saturday" of the tour the same hotel features will be attractive.

The Firestone factory has just added 55,000 additional feet of floor space to its factory, which will permit an increase in its production and in the quality of its product. Mr. Bell is making arrangements to improve our sales facilities.

"We realize the coast is a big field and while we have always secured a big market for our tires, we believe that we can get more of it. As a result in Spokane I opened a direct factory branch and in Portland where we had a subsidiary under the name of the 'Seattle' tire company, I have established a direct branch. We plan on making some improvements in the San Francisco branch, which was our first case in the west, and we will also branch out in our Oakland headquarters."

Blanchard had nothing to say regarding the rubber prices or the shortage of stock, claiming that these conditions were out of his department. However, he said that he knew that the Firestone company had enough raw material to keep its customers supplied with tires and casings for some time to come.

ORPHEUM

Moments of mirth are plentiful at the Oakland Orpheum this week the jubilation being especially noticeable when Messrs. Hines and Fox create a gale of merriment with some of the snappiest fun that has been shot forth from the Orpheum stage in many, many moons. Harry Hines is the bright particular in the comedy of the week, and Fox is the comedian who liberates the audience. They call him "Happy Harry Hines," and the appellation is well deserved.

The other half of the Hines and Fox duo consists of Mr. Fox who provides some very sweet music. Fox has a beautiful tenor voice and is able to put more soul into a pretty ballad than the average grand opera cantatrice.

Those who love the acme of grace and dancing will take joy in the performance of Milla Natalie and M. Ferrar. They are perhaps the most interesting foreign-born artists that have blossomed this year which is saying a great deal for the past season has seen Maurice and Walton and the Castles and the French and the Italian and the Spanish and the native dancers of the dancing world.

Daintiness and charm are the gifts that have been given the Hess Sisters and to those they have added a repertoire of songs in a cleverly staged style so that the combination is irresistibly entertaining.

The actual novelty is the skit called "The Devil Outwitted," played by the Hayward-Stafford Company of players. It must be seen to be appreciated. The description of it would give no idea of its snap and sparkle.

Wells & Bundy, known as "America's" for their clever and a lot of other witty talk, Josephine Dunfee, the prima donna of high degree and The Mozart Duo in a picturesque dancing act round out the bill.

PANTAGES

At the Pantages this week is an act that could readily be starred in a three-act farce-comedy. It is a comedy skit entitled "The Limb of the Law," Arthur O. May is the constable, Lem Hubbard, a limb of the law, and the village gossip, "The Village Gossip," the village gossip.

The climax of hilarious humor is reached in the original terpsichorean act, "The Village Gossip," the village gossip, "The Village Gossip," the village gossip. MACDONOUGH

There is more to this advanced photographic comedy, "Cabrera," than general ancient and classical uproar. Some of the glimpses caught by the camera in the Alps, where Zanniba was plunging through snows with his men and elephants in the desert, are glimpses to send the imagination winging. It required 7000 participants and cost the Italia film people about the national debt of Italy to produce this magnificent spectacle. Matinee will be given for the remainder of the week at 2:20 in the afternoon, with evening performances at 8:30.

William A. Brady announces the first local presentation of "Too Many Cooks" at the Macdonough on Sunday evening next. "Too Many Cooks" is a popular success, the biggest of recent years.

IDORA PARK

Skilled combination of an English lord of the comedy type, an English valet, partaking still more of caricature than his master, a tropical island with Spanish and native dancers in their garters, native islanders of a Hindu and Turkish persuasion, and some modern ballads and ragtime music makes good musical comedy. The combination has been often enough effected, "Florodora" being the classical example. But in "The Birdman," which has its California premiere at Idora Park this week, the elements are handled with a light touch that gives good fun, a sumptuous setting, and a picture of a musical comedy that will be whistled for many a day.

"The Birdman" is the most jovious and effervescent musical comedy presented at Idora Park this season. It gives Ferris Hartman a congenial role, shows the chorus to advantage in graceful costumes, and presents Myrtle Dingwall and Falsely Noon in some of the most fascinating dances seen in the bay region in a long time. The show is one that could well compete in popular favor with some of the high priced attractions imported from the East. Polard, McComb and Bowes are all well suited, so that the cast is a well rounded one.

Roller skating begins again this week at Idora Park in the mammoth pavilion which has been renovated and the floor polished. Manager Wallin announces a series of Sunday day championship races, and is preparing for a big season of fall fun in the form of Halloween parties, carnivals, and other amusements. The "Birdman" will be the offering next week in the caped and phantasmic. The opera is being prepared under the direction of Hartman and Raynes.

"The Prince of Liars" will be the offering next week in the caped and phantasmic. The opera is being prepared under the direction of Hartman and Raynes.

FRANKLIN

An intensely interesting story of adventure is told in the three-reel Essanay production, "The Franklin," which is the principal feature of the bill at the Franklin, beginning today. In a Vitaphone comedy entitled, "Polishing Up," John Bunny and Flora Finch will be seen.

Dorothy Gish, a charming young actress appears in the leading role in "The Franklin," which is a society drama which is said to have unusual merit. "Nearly a Widow," an Edison comedy, "The Inner Conscience," a drama, and "Lake Tahoe," an exceptionally interesting scenic subject make up the balance of the bill which gives a great variety of pictures than any program yet shown at the Franklin.

The orchestra of 12 pieces and pipe organ under the direction of Edgar Bay will be making a strong impression upon the patrons of the new playhouse and much praise has been accorded them and their work. The picture, "William Tell," will be played as a special number commencing tonight. The pipe organ furnishes the music at the matinees which are given daily at 2:15.

BROADWAY

Kathryn Williams, the star of the Selig Moving Picture Play, "In Tune with the Wind," opened yesterday, as the feature attraction at the Broadway, which will remain until Saturday. It is a great Selig production utilizing the stupendous and spectacular jungle zoo and a host of wild animals, all in action.

The story is by Kathryn Williams, the famous film star and in which she takes the leading role, relating the adventures of a missionary who becomes a wild man and for seventeen years lives among the ferocious beasts of the jungle, and the savage Kallars of Sumatra. It is a very interesting offering and has many very exciting climaxes. The other pictures on the bill are of the better quality of movies as they are both from the Mutual Studios, one affords no end of laughter owing to its many comedy situations and yet it is not the other is a wonderful police story in which it is clearly shown how the criminal class goes to any lengths to cause the corruption of the police. It is a clever story acted by a cast of very clever artists and makes it, as well as the entire program, a very exceptional offering.

DETECTIVES SHOT 53 KILLED ON SHIP

MAKES DARING ATTACK FOR LIBERTY

"Forty-Year Smith" Pulls Gun and Wounds Accompanying Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2. — With prison doors staring him in the face, and realizing that he would have to return forthwith to San Quentin, Jack Smith, known as "Forty-Year Smith," took one last desperate chance for freedom at 11 o'clock this morning, and drawing a revolver, fired point blank at Detective Sergeant James Gallagher, who had him in custody. The bullet grazed the officer's head and struck Detective Miles Jackson, who was assisting him, in the arm. The wound is not serious.

Smith and Charles Mack, known as the "Buff Kid," were handcuffed together in the narrow hallway of the Fenton Hotel, 259 Seventh street, and were being taken to the patrol box when Smith managed to get hold of a pistol which had been overlooked when he was searched. As his fingers tightened around the gun he made a sudden lurch away from Gallagher, who was at his side, and fired. The officer had just time to move a few inches and the bullet sped on. With a cry of pain, Jackson leaped aside and Gallagher drawing his own gun, fired on Smith. The bullet went wild and finally closing in on the two desperate ex-convicts, the officers managed to cover them into subduing. Several times Smith tried to draw a bead again, but was unsuccessful. Another pair of handcuffs were produced and when a patrol wagon full of officers arrived from the southern police station the prisoners were under complete control.

The pair, both of whom are on parole from San Quentin, are wanted for the burglary of a drug store at Sixteenth and Valencia streets, and for numerous house thefts in the Petre district. Jackson had been detailed watch for their return to the Fenton, where they had a room, and the police first got on their trail. He had been on guard all night, but when Gallagher went to relieve him, it was decided that both should remain, as information had come that the culprits were soon to appear. Jackson was in their room and Gallagher in the hallway when after sending a man ahead to see if the coast was clear, they entered. Gallagher followed them to the room where they were covered by Jackson's revolver and searched. A gun was taken from each, but Gallagher, searching Smith, overlooked a small weapon. This almost cost him his life.

Smith came to be known as "Forty-Year Smith" twenty years ago when he was arrested by Detective Sergeant Ryan, now day captain of detectives. He was given forty years and obtained his parole some time ago. The "Buff Kid" was sent up for beating up a police sergeant at Sacramento and later for a crime committed in Oakland.

AGED CAVANAUGHS IN MARITAL DIFFERENCES

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—From far away Fort Said, in Egypt, 62-year-old Mrs. Katherine M. Cavanaugh and her 72-year-old husband, Martin L. Cavanaugh, San Jose millionaires, have brought their marital differences over the seas to San Francisco.

With their honeymoon interrupted in Hongkong on their trip around the world, Mrs. Cavanaugh and her husband returned to San Francisco on different steamers, and now they are wasting a bitter fight over Mrs. Cavanaugh's suit for separate maintenance.

Cavanaugh filed today his answer to his wife's charge of cruelty, stating that he has filed suit in Seattle against his gray-haired wife for alleged desertion in Hongkong.

Woman Slays Dentist, Then Leaps to Death

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 3.—Miss Clara Malone, 23 years old, shot and dangerously wounded Dr. Frank L. Fleckhart, 34 years old, a dentist, last night and then threw herself from the sixth floor window of the hotel where the shooting occurred. Fleckhart, who is unmarried, is in a hospital in a dangerous condition with a bullet wound through his right lung. The woman was picked up dead.

"TRAMP! TRAMP! TRAMP! THE GIRLS ARE MARCHING!"
MILITANT MAIDS IN MILITIA

ALAMEDA COUNTY'S FEMININE GUARDSMEN, ENTRENCHED AND READY FOR A BATTLE. THE OFFICERS, FIRST THREE (LEFT TO RIGHT), ARE: MISS MARIE COAKLEY, MISS CHRISTINE ANDREAS and MISS FRIDERICKA HAMBURG.

Suffragette soldiers? It can and will be done. Of course, it'll be in a sham battle only, but, then, they're only sham soldiers, although they don't shut their eyes when they shoot!

A bevy of pretty girls have enlisted with Company H of the National Guard, for the big sham battle to take place as one of the features of the Mt. Diablo celebration. The Second Battalion, Fifth Regiment—the Alameda county companies—have the girls. When the four ones wanted to enlist they were told that they would enact the part of nurses in the war. "Nix on the nurses!" was the demand. "We want to fight."

They will fight. A special trench has been dug in the "battlefield" for the "soldierettes," and guns—with blank shells—provided. All's ready for the battle.

The big celebration at which the battle will be staged is to take place September 5, 8 and 7 at Mt. Diablo park. There will be drills, broncho-busting contests and other events. The seven girls who will fight with the guardsmen are officered by Miss Marie Coakley, Miss Christine Andreas and Miss Fredericka Hamburg.

WOMAN VOWS TO AVENGE MURDER

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—Denying all suggestions of "unrequited love" as a motive for the slaying of Mrs. Maud Kennedy, victim of brutal slayers, Mrs. Florence Cheney, the dead woman's "guardian angel" through life, today declared that she herself will find the murderer of her friend and bring him to justice.

Revealing a strange story of hypnotic power exercised on the slain woman—a power so great that it helped Mrs. Kennedy in a grip of fear which almost deprived her of her reason—Mrs. Cheney asserted that love had played no part in the tragedy of murder and theft.

The diamonds worn by Mrs. Kennedy and taken from her in the hour of death, valued by her son at $1300, Mrs. Cheney declares were worth at least $3500. It was to gain possession of these jewels and of what property Mrs. Kennedy had that she was hypnotized and held a psychic prisoner by a small coterie of alleged friends, Mrs. Cheney believes.

It is to save the dead woman's honor that the silver-haired "guardian angel" or "Mother," as she is known by her many friends, has taken up the pursuit of Mrs. Kennedy's slayer.

CAME IN TEARS.

"I have known her since she was a child. Her honor has been smirched and I will clear it if it takes my lifetime," Mrs. Cheney said. "It was in the most desperate trouble that she came to me just before her death, and had I not been

RALPH FARISS' DOOM SEALED BY COURT

Southern Pacific Bandit Re-sentenced for Montague Murder.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—Ralph Fariss, alias John Bostick, Southern Pacific bandit, under sentence of death, was re-sentenced by Judge Gavin Craig today.

Fariss was found guilty of the murder of H. E. Montague of Alhambra, whom he shot on the train which he held up.

"I have made my peace with God, with the state and am ready to pay the last penalty if called on," Fariss said today. "I am informed that I still have a hope of life in a law that will be voted on at the coming election. It is a cruel hope, as are all other hopes of a condemned man."

"I would like to see Mrs. Montague, wife of the slain man," said Fariss. "She is certainly a good woman and among the few whose sympathy counts. If there is a Christian in the land, it is certainly Mrs. Montague, who can willingly forgive the slayer of her husband."

"Since being in prison I have received one letter from Mrs. Lola Statter, the woman I love. I have nothing to say, except my regard for her has been intensified, and I would like to protect her from further publicity now if I could."

"Last night my father boarded the train at Bakersfield, his home, and spoke a few cheering words to me. He will be here today to see me."

PRISONER CHEERFUL.

"I do not want a stay of execution, but want to get back to San Quentin. Life is still sweet and I am as contented as a man may be under sentence of death. I play ball three hours every day with Bundy, Lawson and other prisoners. The prison officials are kind and I have nothing to complain of so far as my physical comfort is concerned. I can only hope that my life will be spared—a remote hope."

Fariss is looking well, has gained in weight and is cheerful rather than depressed.

On the night of December 21 Fariss held up the Sunset Limited Southern Pacific train and robbed the passengers. Horace E. Montague and at his trial was convicted. An appeal to the Supreme Court failed and as the time set for the original execution had passed it became necessary to return the condemned man here for resentence.

There was a happy family reunion this morning in Judge Samuels' court.

"Now, are you going home to be a good man and will you quit drinking and treat your wife right?" asked the judge of a gaunt, little Italian, who, with his head bandaged and a swollen eye, held his ground sturdily in the courtroom.

A quizzical smile spread over the little man's face. There was a moment's silence.

"I don't know as I can say that," he answered.

"But your wife says she'll take you back if you'll treat her decently. Come, now, bury the hatchet and make friends. Step forward, Mrs. Bozzo."

And Mrs. Bozzo, a red-haired Amazon from sunny France, towering above her diminutive husband, ignored her completely and looked only at the judge.

"How's this? No fooling now. It's either to go home with her or thirty days in jail. Sunday, it can't be as bad as all that. Make peace now and go along."

Then Bozzo found his tongue.

"I think, if you don't mind, I'd rather have jail. She's a bad one, you know—she'll over the head with a frying-pan and throw a bottle of milk at me, and she was as drunk as me, anyhow." Here a yell of rage went up from his spouse. There were gesticulations and a rush of fluent French, till an interpreter was summoned and silence once more restored.

"Well, it's home or the jail," announced the judge. "You've got to decide. You didn't like our home here so much last night that you want thirty days more. Here, take your wife's arm and go along and behave yourself."

The life-mates looked each other over viciously. The little man's grin deepened into a scowl.

"You'll get yours," he hissed at his wife. But the policeman had already joined his arm with her's and shoved them toward the doorway.

As they passed out he whispered, "Got any money?"

"Oh, yes."

And the happy couple disappeared.

Nome Hurricane Has Abated in Violence

NOME, Alaska, Sept. 3.—The storm which endangered this district Tuesday abated early yesterday and fear for the safety of property along the Nome waterfront was no longer felt. Three lighters of the Sisson Company were blown ashore in the night near Lanes Way. They were floated yesterday.

A message from Captain O'Brien of the steamer, Victoria, stated he had anchored ten miles from Nome. The steamer Corwin, which, with the steamers Victoria and Bear, was forced to put to sea by the on-shore sale, is returning from Sledge Island, and it is believed that the Bear is on her way here from the same point.

CHAUFFEUR SEVERELY INJURED.

Student Vandalism in University Receive Severe Punishment

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 2.—Two students of the university, who have been found guilty of vandalism in different campus buildings, have received punishment at the hands of the students' affairs committee. As usual, the student committee does not mention the names of the offenders. One who made cuts with a knife in the polished oak tables of Boalt hall of law, a sophomore, has been reprimanded by President Wheeler, forced to replace the table top and denied the use of the room except by special permission. Another sophomore in social science has been similarly punished for defacing the pages of a library book.

FINANCIER OF OAKLAND IS BENEDICT

Arthur L. Harris and Miss Bertha B. Agnew Wed in Denver.

News was received from Denver today of the marriage of Arthur L. Harris, vice-president of the Central Savings Bank of Oakland, to Miss Bertha B. Agnew, which took place last evening in the parsonage of the Capitol Presbyterian Church of Denver. The marriage is an interesting surprise to friends of the groom, few of whom guessed the purpose of his trip to Denver last week.

Harris is one of the prominent bankers of California, and is well known in business circles of the State. He has been identified with the city's financial development and is considered one of the able financiers of Oakland. In the past six months he has made his home at the Hotel Oakland.

The bride's family is prominent in Denver, and she is an attractive and accomplished young woman, who will be a charming addition to Oakland society.

Mrs. Harris and Mr. Harris are spending a honeymoon in the East, and will return October 1, to make their home at the Hotel Oakland, where apartments have been engaged for them.

Mrs. B. Abrahams in Rumored Separation

Cupid and the festive daisies don't mix, according to gossip in Oakland society, following the sudden departure from the Hotel Oakland of Mrs. Blanche Abrahams, one of the leaders in Oakland's younger set and known among the dancers as "Dancing Queen."

Mrs. Abrahams, who is the daughter of one of San Francisco's late multi-millionaires, has gone to the St. Francis in San Francisco where she is living with her mother, Mrs. Julia Simons. Abrahams is still living at the Hotel Oakland, and spending most of his time in the big tannery he owns in West Berkeley. Neither will discuss the rumored separation.

Friends declare that for some time past the course of true love has not been smooth, but the rumors of a separation did not start until about three days ago, when Mrs. Abrahams left the hotel and her husband hastened to her mother in San Francisco. It is declared that Mrs. Simons and her daughter's husband had disagreed shortly before the separation of the couple.

Mrs. Abrahams was well known in San Francisco and Oakland society as Miss Blanche Simons, and took a prominent part in the social affairs at the Hotel Oakland. Abrahams is one of the best known of the young business men on this side of the bay. He is principal owner of the big Berkeley tannery and owns other important business ventures in Oakland and vicinity.

Six Children Killed in Sand Bank Cave-in

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Five girls and one boy, ranging in age from 10 to 12 years, were killed here yesterday by the caving in of a sand bank on which they were playing.

The boy is supposed to have dislodged the sand, which engulfed him and his companions. They were in a tunnel they had dug into the foot of the bank and when found were covered with several feet of sand.

PASSENGERS IN BATTLE WITH CREW

German Steamer Blucher Puts On Fierce Fight With 800 in Steerage.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—A riot aboard the German steamer Blucher, at anchor in the harbor of Pernambuco, Brazil, in which three of the Blucher's crew and fifty of her 800 steerage passengers were killed was described today by passengers aboard the Brazilian steamer Sao Paulo on her arrival here from Brazilian ports, whence she sailed at the commencement of the European war.

The Blucher was bound from Buenos Ayres for Hamburg, under the German flag, when Germany and England went to war. Upon learning that war had been declared the Blucher backed to Pernambuco. She had aboard, the Sao Paulo's passengers asserted, several million dollars for London, and 800 Spaniards and Portuguese in the steerage.

When Pernambuco was reached, the steerage passengers insisted that the ship proceed to her destination, and on the refusal of the Blucher's officials to do so a riot was started. The bodies of the steerage passengers, who were killed were thrown overboard, according to the Sao Paulo's passengers.

MUINY ON SHIP.

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept. 3.—The Leyland steamer Ikala came into the port today under a police flag, and it is reported that there was a mutiny aboard. Harbor police and custom officials proceeded at once to the steamer. The crew is composed largely of coolies.

Two Honor Prisoners at San Quentin Flee

SAN RAFAEL, Sept. 3.—Two San Quentin honor prisoners broke faith and fled. Under an experimental modification of the honor system Raymond Hines and George W. Garbrick both of the prison escaped. The men were to serve two and the other seven years for robbery, were among a company of twenty-five, working on a road one mile out of this town, under the surveillance of a single unarmed guard. The two broke from the gang, but the others made no attempt to follow them.

A posse is now in pursuit.

SAW DUST TANK ABLAZE.

The saw dust tank in the rear of the Foster-street planing mill took fire late today and owing to the prompt arrival of the fire department a serious fire was averted. The manager refused to discuss the matter very fully, but asserted that the damage was light and would be covered by the firm. The tank was utilized to hold the shavings and saw dust and was quite combustible. It is not known exactly how the fire started.

MISS ARDELIA ZEIGENFUSS, BRIDESMAID AT THE OUTTRIM-SARGENT WEDDING.

SPEAKING of styles for men and white flannel trousers with black dinner coats, there is a refreshing informality in their attire these days. At least an approach to it.

Blue serge coats and white flannel trousers are quite de rigueur for afternoon in the country, weddings, teas or dances. They were worn at the wedding of Miss Rags and Edward Allen in Ross Valley the other day, and they certainly are more attractive than long-tail cut-aways, which, however, are less dreadfully funeral than frock coats.

No man, unless it may be John Drew on the stage, has ever looked perfectly unconscious in a frock coat. Men hate them, too, generally speaking, and it's odd the way they've persisted. It was Chesterton who wrote: "Let it be granted that a man in a frock coat is a heartrending sight," and still more one when convention demanded it.

But they do seem to be passing. Long-tail cut-aways—worn instead, both appeared at the Brownell-Martin wedding yesterday. The cut-aways are quite as correct and sure of themselves as the frock coats. At one of the smart London weddings of July, before the war excitement, bridegroom and ushers wore black cut-aways with gray trousers, white waistcoats and white spats. At a garden party Lord Farquhar, for example, wore a cut-away and Lord Lansdowne a frock. Both wore elaborate boutonnières and the inevitable silk hats.

A feminine critic the other day said men really look better in tennis flannels than in anything they wear, and it's true. If they don't do as Mark Twain did—discover white is becoming to them and stick to it. The new fashion at Burlington may be a beginning.

MISS HALL ENGAGED.
Mrs. S. P. Hall today announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Alice Hall, to Lieutenant Rapp Brush, U. S. A. It is one of the interesting announcements of the season, and is a delightful surprise to society, that had received no hint of the charming romance of the Hall's visit to Manila, where the young people met last winter. Mrs. Hall and her daughter returned early in the summer from a sojourn in the Philippines following Judge Hall's death last year. Soon after their arrival they went to their country home near Felton and recently returned to their Oakland home.

Miss Hall is an unusually pretty girl.

WOMEN FROM 45 to 55 TESTIFY

To the Merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life.

Westbrook, Me.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial."—Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis.—"At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since."—Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Manston, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled in such cases. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Trouble-Seeking

(By Lillian Russell)

Copyright, 1934, by LILLIAN RUSSELL.

WHEN you look around you at the present day and see how much there is to do to occupy the mind and see how almost incredible it is to believe that there are so many people who still take the time to look for trouble. This certain pastime is not confined to pessimists. Of course, there are many people who have suffered so much trouble in their lives they have begun to imagine it can never end.

It seems but a few years ago that people, especially children, were always happy to be amused, and it required so little to make them happy. At present it is not uncommon to hear the remark: "O, what's the use in going there? There won't be any fun," or "I suppose if we do start out there will be rain or something will happen to spoil our fun."

Young pessimists looking for trouble at all times, instead of preparing for inclement weather and going ahead to have a good time. Young girls in their teens not infrequently remark: "What's the use of my receiving an invitation? My mother won't let me accept it because she thinks I want to go." How does this girl know? Has she asked? No. She just takes it for granted because her mind is looking for trouble. She does not care to read books that would be good because the heroines' names suggest historical or intellectual characters. She concludes, therefore, that they must be "frightfully stupid."

Imagine what kind of women the girls grow up to be. Unhappy before they are 20, miserable and trouble seeking, placing a barrier between themselves and beauty, broadmindedness and generosity.

To such people all advice and suggestions for improvement are wasted. "Improve my hair?" "Nothing would do it any good." "Use cream on my face?" "O, what's the use? It's too much trouble."

Remember: Nature teaches marvelous lessons if you will study with her.

Answers to Queries.

ANXIOUS.—I cannot give names and addresses of operators of the electric needle through these columns.

MISS G.—The milk diet is for reducing flesh and not for gaining. If you are thin and tired looking I would advise a rest. Eat nourishing foods, plenty of rest and fresh air. Walk daily, but do not exercise too much. I would also advise a good tonic. I cannot give you the name of one which may be purchased on the market, but scian and get one from him.

BERTA.—The first thing for you to do for the bunion is to wear shoes wide enough to allow the toes to spread in their natural position. Bunions are usually caused from ill-fitting shoes, and they can be remedied. Place cotton between the great and second toes large enough to keep them apart and put the joint into place. The adhesive plaster bandage is also good. Place the adhesive plaster around the great toe, then pull it out so the joint is in its proper place, and bind the plaster around the foot, holding the toe in place, not so tight that it is uncomfortable or so you cannot walk. This will relieve all inflammation, and in a short time the bunion will disappear. There are instruments on the market that keep the toe in place. I cannot give you the names of them, but I am sure any druggist will carry them. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I will send you instructions for using the green soap treatment.

F. S.—Apply the peroxide and ammonia to the superfluous hair daily. Allow it to dry on the skin. I do not think it will irritate the skin, but if it does apply a cream to the arms. Use until the hair is removed. There is special cream on the market to use. Be sure you get pure peroxide.

D. S. A.—I think you must be mistaken in regard to the name. Cocoa butter is used for developing the bust. Peanut butter is a food and is not used for developing. You can buy cocoa butter at any drug store. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall send you instructions for developing the bust and for deep breathing.

Remi. Mrs. Remi Chabot at Villa Remi near St. Helena.

HOLIDAY HOUSE PARTY.
Mrs. Lucy May Hayes will be among the guests at a house party to be given over the holidays by Richard Hotelling and later the Cecil Bremer hosts of society. It will take place at the Hotelling ranch in Marin county and among other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Gerstle and Mr. and Mrs. Will Gerstle.

PROMINENT CLUB WOMAN WEDS.
The wedding of Mrs. Adelaide Wedgwood, one of Oakland's most prominent club women, and Mr. W. W. Wedgwood, a capitalist of Los Angeles, took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward O. Johnson in Thirty-sixth street, New York. A score of intimate friends were present at the wedding. The house was very attractively decorated for the occasion. The hall and living room where the ceremony took place were in shades of pink and lavender, a profusion of pale lavender sweet peas and La France roses being used.

A wedding luncheon was served in the dining room where the same color scheme was followed. The bride wore a becoming gray cloth-tailor suit with small dark blue velvet and velvet La France roses and lavender sweet peas. Miss Mary Le Gault played the piano and later the Cecil Bremer hosts of society. The wedding was a most attractive and charming affair.

KELSEY-STUART WEDDING.
The wedding of Miss Florence Kelsey and Thomas Wheeler Stuart will take place this evening in All Souls' church, Berkeley, and will be attended by several hundred guests. Later there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dayton Kelsey in Spruce street. Miss Edna Von Hagen and Miss Genevieve Townsend, Grand Rapids, will be best man and the bridesmaids will be Miss Edna Von Hagen and Miss Genevieve Townsend. Mr. W. R. H. Hodgkins will be the officiating clergyman. About 100 guests will be present at the reception and wedding supper.

IN SAN FRANCISCO.
Mrs. E. W. Johnson and Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, who have spent the past year in London, are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Stuart Smith at her home in San Francisco. They will stay at the Villa Victoria residence, leased to the Warren Harolds and it is probable they will spend the winter across the bay.

MONTAGUES RETURN.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Montague with Kenneth and Paige Montague, have returned from their visit to Berkeley. Paige Montague will leave this month for the east to continue his studies at Harvard Law School.

HOLIDAYS AT BROOKDALE.
Miss Flo Nolan will leave Saturday for Brookdale to spend the holidays as the house guest of Mrs. Anna Allen. Later Mrs. Allen and her husband will go to Tahoe for a month's sojourn.

GIRL, BITTEN BY SNAKE, SAVES OWN LIFE

Sucks Wound and Hastens to Physician for Aid

WILLIAMS, Sept. 2.—Miss Lily Reese, daughter of Dr. J. Reese of Bear Valley, was bitten by a rattlesnake.

The snake buried its fangs in the calf of her leg and she had presence of mind to suck the poison from her limb. She was brought to town and treated by a local physician.

WOMEN PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO WIELDING WHIPS.
STOCKTON, Sept. 2.—Mrs. Jennie Cottle, Mrs. W. F. Hines and Mrs. Laura Palmer, who participated in the horse-whipping of Charles E. Manthey, president of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce, appeared in court yesterday morning in answer to a charge of battery, preferred by Manthey. The women pleaded not guilty and asked for jury trials. The case will come up September 25, on which date the trial will be set.

WHITE ROSE TO BE NEW FASHION: NO DYES.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—Bleached white or undyed hosiery will prevail next spring and summer, according to members of the Advisory Association of Hosiery Manufacturers, which met here yesterday to discuss the dye problem with importers and domestic manufacturers of dyes.

Learning that no immediate relief can be expected in the dyestuff situation because of the European war, hosiery manufacturers were advised not to accept orders for dyed hosiery for delivery after January 1.

WOMAN HURLED FROM AUTO OVER LAKE POST.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.—Miss Vivian Yvette of Stockton, Cal., is in a serious condition at the city hospital, following an automobile accident last night, in which she was hurled over a 12-foot lamppost. Her injuries are probably fatal. She was a millinery buyer and was in an automobile when it was struck by a street car.

MRS. GOETHALS HELD AS SPY IN FRANCE.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—With the return of Paul Graves Williams, naval officer who was in France at the time of the outbreak of the war, it became known yesterday that Mrs. George W. Goethals, wife of Governor Goethals of the Panama canal zone, was arrested at Villeneuve, a German spy shortly after the war began.

Mrs. Goethals is of German descent and speaks the language fluently. She had some difficulty proving her identity, but finally produced her marriage certificate. When the French officers learned she was the wife of the builder of the Panama canal they could not apologize sufficiently, and her release was ordered immediately.

STUDENT KILLED BY FALL IN ALPS.
His Body Is Found at Bottom of Precipice in Switzerland.

GENEVA, Sept. 2 (via Paris, Sept. 1).—The body of Paul Graves Williams, a student of South Dakota, an undergraduate of Oxford, who has been missing since July 23, was found today by a guide at the bottom of a precipice on the Goshens Alps.

The couple, accompanied by another American undergraduate of Oxford, Noel Keys, arrived in Switzerland from London in July and went to Fieselen, from which place they started to climb the mountain without a guide.

Keys, returning to Zurich, where he waited in vain for his comrade to return, Wilmet's parents were informed and offered a reward in the Swiss press for information regarding the student. This was without result until today.

The body of Wilmet has been taken to Fieselen for burial.

PEACE FILM IS ALMOST DESTROYED BY FIREMEN.
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 2.—How the Los Angeles fire department nearly wrecked a motion picture movie scene, staged as an argument for maintenance of strict neutrality by the American people in America, is told by officials of a local film company.

It all happened because the firemen were not informed that the "fire" and the movie scene that caused the alarm were not the real thing.

The "mob" scene, staged in an alley between Seventh and Eighth streets, had between 750 and 1000 men. When the fire department responded to an alarm lines of hose were laid into the alley and water was turned on. Chief Eley rushed into the scene just in time to prevent the wrecking of the picture and picture man.

The picture was made at the request of President Wilson. In its making the company had the hearty co-operation of Mayor James H. Rolph, Jr., and Secretary Frank Higgins of the Chamber of Commerce.

The picture was designed to portray the dire results of arguments about war. It depicted two young men starting for work. They joined a crowd in viewing a war map, and followed. At the factory's door the argument was followed by a fist fight which became general. Fire started in the factory and the police reserves and firemen were called.

SOUTH AFRICA JURIST DIES.
PRETORIA, Union of South Africa, Sept. 2.—Baron John Henry de Villiers, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Union of South Africa, died yesterday. He was Attorney General and Minister of Mines during the Botha cabinet and was created a baron in 1910. He was born in 1842.

ROYALTY IN LEGAL WAR PRINCESSES SEEK ESTATE

PRINCESS ROSPIGLOSI (LAURA McDONALD STALLO), WHO HAS SUED TO RECOVER MILLIONS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—While the rulers of Europe are battling, royalty right here in New York is having a little battle of its own—in this case over gold. Princess Rospiglosi, who was Laura McDonald Stallo, and her sister, the Princess Murat, are on one side; the Metropolitan Trust Company on the other, and the estate of their grandfather, Alexander McDonald, is the bone of contention.

The princesses claim that the trust company is creditor, as well as administrator, and so cannot serve in the latter capacity. On that ground they seek control of the estate. They also claim that the company has made a profit of several millions on stock sales in the estate.

OAKLAND'S BOYS & GIRLS

Dancer Departs Removes to South.
STUDENTS TO DEBATE ON WILSON POLICIES.

The Congress Debating Society of the Oakland High school has held several spirited meetings this term. The members of the society are divided into different political parties. The Democrats, under Leader Hastings, have tried to pass a set of resolutions constituting President Wilson on his various policies. The Progressives, under Leader Elder, have been opposing the resolutions.

After a debate, during which statements, contradictions and operations were hurled across the room a vote was taken showing that the Progressives were the victors.

An impeachment trial will soon be held in congress. The defendant will be Edwin Chambers, speaker-pro-tem of congress, and J. R. Sutton, vice-tri-president of the school, will act as judge. The other participants in the trial have not yet been announced.

Under the following officers the congress looks forward to a very successful term. Speaker, Ed Leonard; speaker-pro-tem, Edwin Chambers; clerk, Edward Drew; sergeant at arms, Folkers; faculty advisor, Miss Fraser.

ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN BY GARFIELD SCHOOL.
The Garfield school entertainment given for the purpose of raising a sum to purchase baseball suits for the members of the baseball team, was a success. The affair was arranged by Miss Ruth Findley and Stanley McFadden, playground directors. Among the pupils who contributed to the program were Anna Jordan, Irene Weaver, and others.

Talented young people appeared in the comedy called "Johnson's Intelligence Office." The performers were J. Rogers, Betty Gruber, Bert Ferraro, Ernest P. Soper and Grace Soper.

Original songs and dances were given by Anna Soper, buck and wing dancing was by Gerald McCarthy and Thomas Connolly. In the dance, "Garland of Old-fashioned Roses," the following appeared: Lucy Amaro, Lulu Belsen, Edna Clarke, Lucia Lehman and Anna Soper. Musical numbers by Esther Macdonald and Emma Lehnhardt.

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—President Wilson sees no reason why Congress should remain in session after the emergency war measures and the trust legislation have been disposed of, and officials expect adjournment this afternoon.

New Importations
of Oriental Rugs

OUR extensive collection of Persian and Turkish Rugs has been greatly augmented by the recent arrival of large assortments directly imported. During a number of years past we have devoted much attention to this branch of our business, purchasing through our own representatives in the Oriental markets of the world. Our collection is therefore composed of specimens carefully selected for individual merit, of unusual beauty of colorings and designs, and contains a great number of room-size rugs, runners and genuine antiques. The cost of many popular weaves is but little greater than that of high-grade domestic rugs, while their value is vastly more enduring.

CIRCUS LIKE MENAGERIE IS CONGERIES OF MEN

THE DAVENPORTS—SOME OF THEM—COMING TO OAKLAND WITH BARNUM & BAILEY'S CIRCUS.

Foreigners predominate in the ranks of the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth, although, in itself, it is a typically American institution. The reason is found in the fact that the value of gymnastics for promoting health and the development of physique is recognized more clearly abroad than in this country. The agents of the big circus, which is to show here tomorrow at Forty-fifth street and San Pablo avenue, annually employ other lands of equestrians, acrobats, gymnasts, equilibrist and acrobats, whose exploits of grace, strength, skill and daring are not duplicated in this country.

In Germany the government not only controls the practice of gymnastics, but makes it compulsory for every child and adult to undergo a prescribed amount of such physical training. In France, also, physical training by gymnastics is under state control. In Sweden, Denmark, Switzerland, Italy and Russia systems more or less distinct enjoy a wide popularity.

The Flans have introduced an exceptional degree of variety into their exercises, as well as into the appliances designed to assist them. Physical practice, although not compulsory, has obtained a permanent place in the code for elementary schools in Great Britain.

In these modern days, when the human form is decorously dissembled and disguised by complicated garments, the freedom of the circus permits the patron to recapture something of the frank and innocent delight of the early Greeks in the beauty of the body, and because the circus preserves this unusual privilege probably is one of the reasons of its national popularity.

The dressing-room of the big amusement institution would put a census taker to flight. They are a panorama of nations, a congress of religions, a Babel of tongues. More than 500 performers are on the payroll. They come from twenty-four different parts of the world.

IGORROTES WILL APPEAR AT FAIR

The Little Brown Folk to Show Tribal Crafts in Capital Grounds.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—A band of Igorrotes from the Philippines will appear at the state fair in September. The members of the amusement center at the state fair in September. The members of the amusement center at the state fair in September. The members of the amusement center at the state fair in September.

The Igorrotes are from Bontok in Upper Luzon and the troupe consists of eight men and four women. They are a part of a party brought to this country to study by anthropologists and give wonderful demonstrations of their arts and crafts, weaving beautiful blankets, constructing fanciful baskets, working metals and fashioning spears and other weapons. The crude tools with which they work are of their own construction and many of them are made in the presence of the audience.

Native dances and the weird melodies of the South Seas are among the repertoire of the savages and various religious rites are interspersed through the performance. A great delicacy of the Igorrotes is dog stew prepared with care and religious detail. It is needless to assure dog fancier that the canines used by the natives are purchased for the purpose and that pets running loose are tabu with the Igorrotes.

The directors have decided to make the big engines purchased for the head-on collision at the fair useful while awaiting their turn to perform. The engines are busy switching cars on the spur tracks in the fair grounds, thereby rendering much assistance in cleaning up the grounds and in receiving the exhibits.

LOOT GIVEN UP. PALO ALTO, Sept. 3.—Three members of the Chi Psi fraternity of the University of California and one member of the Stanford chapter carried off potted plants, jardiniere, garden hose and other property from residences on El Camino Real last Monday and carried the loot to the campus charter house in a hired rig. A mandatory order to bring the stolen property to the Chief of Police's office was sent to the fraternity. One of the innocent members of the fraternity brought the loot to the City Hall. No arrests will be made.

They contain no habit-forming drugs. Send everything.

JANITOR KILLED
BY EXPLOSION

Thought Apparatus Harmless; Fatal Result Follows.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—A luddite percussion shell, fired a year ago at the bombardment and destruction of the mining camp at Lampocitos, Mexico, and since then passed from hand to hand as a souvenir, yesterday fell into the hands of a German of analytical mind. Ten minutes later, while he was investigating its mechanism, the shell exploded with terrific force, instantly killing Frederick Betschen, a janitor, 50 years old, of 131 North Hill street, in the kitchen of his home.

The very defects which probably prevented the explosion of the shell when it was fired in battle, limited the area of its effect. Its force, exerted downward, mutilated the man who was prying it open and saved the lives of five other persons in the next room and four canaries and a parrot that were in the room with the explosion. Lead slugs, with which the shell was filled, penetrated a tin trunk and the clothing in it and also three-inch thick redwood planks. The force of the explosion was heard several blocks, shattering windows in nearby houses.

The shell was three inches in diameter and fourteen inches long. The point had a movable pin depressing a rod which, on contact, fired the charge. The slugs of lead were the death-dealing medium. Experts declared that had the shell been in perfect condition it would have demolished the house and killed all within.

Mrs. E. L. Jones of 419 West Temple street, told the story of the shell. "An Arizona mining man, F. C. Bradley, several months ago visited the mining camp destroyed by the Mexicans at Lampocitos and picked up the shell. He sent it to my son Stanley as a keepsake and I kept it near my bed to use as a club in case burglars attacked me. When I moved away from the Betschen house yesterday I gave it to them for the same use if they ever needed protection."

"I even tapped Mrs. Betschen playfully with it, using the pointed end with the little rattling pin in it to touch her with. None of us thought it was loaded or it would have gone off in the battle."

LAND SWINDLER SENTENCED. PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 3.—Dan J. Connors, arrested in Minneapolis after Government agents had traced him through Canada, pleaded guilty in the United States District Court yesterday to a charge of using the mails to defraud in connection with the alleged collection of money to locate settlers in Oregon. California railroad land grants. He was sentenced to thirteen months' imprisonment in the Federal penitentiary on McNeil island, Wash.

WHY IT PAYS TO TRADE AT BOWMAN'S DURING TROUBLESOME TIMES

Business Connections That Have Taken Forty Years to Develop Are Now Beginning to Count.

EDITORIAL

Outside of the medical profession, but few people realize the protection we offer them in our prescription department.

There is probably no drug store in the United States which surrounds its prescription department with greater safeguards or is more careful to see that no prescription clerk is allowed to be interrupted or given any opportunity to make an error. Our system of placing individual responsibility, our wonderfully complete assortment of all standard and known drugs, combined with the efficiency of the trained graduate pharmacist, always employed exclusively for this work, make Bowman's the ideal store for prescription requirements.

Physicians have recognized these facts for many years, with the result that we do one of the largest prescription businesses in the United States.

BE SURE AND SEE
THE PICTURE
FRAMES ON SALE
TOMORROW.

Be sure to see the Parisian Ivory Photo Frames on special sale tomorrow at 49c each. This is one of the best special sale items we have had for a long time. They have an esel back and are just right for a cabinet photo or a pretty postcard.

It might be a good plan to buy several of them for future use as Xmas Gifts, Card Prizes, Remembrances, etc.

A CATHARTIC FOR CHILDREN

We have a candy cathartic that is especially fine for children because they like it and it causes no griping or future constipation. It is called Bowman's Laxative Triangles. They come in a little tin box, 40 to the box, for 25c. Children eat them the same as candy. Heretofore it has been difficult to get a candy cathartic that did not gripe.

A FINE BATH SPRAY
FOR A DOLLAR

If Your Bath Room Lacks a Bath Spray Here's Your Chance to Get One.

Superlative statements are dangerous things, and when we say we have the best shower bath spray we ever saw for a dollar we appreciate our position because we have been selling bath sprays practically every day for a great many years. Of course there are many people who see a bath spray once a week for many years, but our case is different, as we see about twenty times as many sprays as the average individual and about five or six times as often. Therefore, if you are a patron of Bowman's, you are to be congratulated. We are strangely used, by business friendships, to the very best wholesale concerns in the world, who will continue to guard our interests as we have always guarded yours. The old adage "Get it at Bowman's" will probably now be changed to read "You CAN get it at Bowman's."

SUPERFLUOUS
HAIR GROWTHS NO LONGER NECESSARY

The keen mental suffering of women troubled with unsightly hair growth is totally unnecessary. Such growth can be removed instantly and harmlessly, without the slightest fear that the hair will grow more heavily than before. Saturate the hair with a few drops of El Rado, the matchless liquid hair remover; in a few moments the hair will begin leaving the skin soft, supple and perfectly clear.

While medical science knows of no chemical agent which will eradicate hair permanently without serious injury, it is an established scientific fact that El Rado will remove hair for a very long time. Its action is absolutely harmless, simple and thorough. When the hair finally does reappear it is finer instead of coarser, and can instantly be removed again for a much longer period than at first.

El Rado is becoming as standard a toilet article as face cream or toilet powder; the saps of society women use it. As a remedy and aid to good looks, El Rado has no equal, for there is not a beauty preparation in the world that can improve one's appearance more than the graceful removal of an unsightly hair growth. Try a few drops on your arm; you'll soon know if you are not entirely satisfied. El Rado is sold by all leading druggists and department stores, or direct from the El Rado Mfg. Co., New York. Valuable information sent on request.

For sale by stores of the OWL DRUG CO.—Advertisement.

Trusting to Memory

GOOD telephone service depends vitally upon care in calling telephone numbers. A wrong number called causes loss of time to you, to the party called and to the operator. Every instance means inconvenience to all concerned, which is wholly avoidable.

It is not the loss of time to you alone or to the operator that concerns us most, but it is the annoyance to the party called. Your mistake cannot be explained to him, and the Telephone Company is held responsible for your error.

Consulting the current issue of the telephone directory, instead of trusting to memory; giving your number clearly, and quickly correcting the operator if she misunderstands your call, will greatly increase the efficiency of the service.
